

Meldrum LLCP

Google meet call on 27th April 2020 10.00 – 11.20

Attendance, Peter Young (Active Schools), Yvonne McLeod (Udny Trust) , Sam Rawlins (Community Planning), Ian Jackson (HT Meldrum Academy), Calvin Little (NHS Public Health) and Annette Holland (CLD).

The meeting was pulled together for a catch-up and future plans for LLCP.

Active Schools,

Pete explained what his service was doing for the past few weeks. Covering Easter Hubs at Alford due to his home area. Working from home on development plans and service requirements. Due to current restriction he will not be visiting the network.

Udny Trust

The trust have taken transfer of the Linsmor Hotel in Pitmedden as a community asset. All development work on this project has halted. They are still holding board meetings which has resulted in agreement to compile a questionnaire to be circulated within Udny Parish. Pitmedden news will be available on line from 6th May 2020.

Community Planning

New resilient group are coping well. No assistance required. Co-op are delivering food parcels. British legion are also taking a lead role in helping the community at this time of need.

Reminder that there are funds available for groups to develop services.

Meldrum Academy.

Education is covering the hubs for early years through to secondary young people. CLD have been asked to cover weekends if required.

Guidance staff are in contact with vulnerable pupils and families. Teachers are still offering class work and trying to keep young people engaged in school work. Broadband in the area has been challenging for young people with parents working from home using bank width.

Health

Aberdeenshire Health & Wellbeing Festival has now changed into a virtual festival. Partners are being asked to provide some delivery which fits the health & wellbeing theme. E.g. yoga, meditation etc.

Health are now making contact with those in the community who are in the shielded category. Any needs will be met by health staff or local residents contacted through the Grampian hub.
